

The UMA Faculty of Psychology Conducts Field Trip Activities to UIN Ar-Raniry

Faculty of Psychology, University of Medan Area Carry Out Filed Trip Activities to the Faculty of Psychology of UIN Ar-Raniry, Wednesday (7/10/2019). The presence of UMA Psychology students was in the context of field visits for cross-cultural psychology courses.

The UMA Faculty of Psychology was attended by the Dean, Prof. Dr. H. Abdul Munir, M.Pd and other lecturers. The arrival of the Faculty of Psychology was welcomed by hundreds of students of UIN Ar-Raniry in the Psychology Faculty Theater Room. Dean of the Faculty of Psychology of UIN Ar-Raniry, Prof. Eka Srimulyani said, as the host they also held a sharing together with students and lecturers of UMA.

During the meeting, they were more introducing and sharing experiences or matters related to the two faculties. After sharing, the participants were entertained by performances from both faculties including solo singing, stand up comedy, musical poetry, and collaborative performances between the two faculties.

While Vice Dean III, Fuad M.Hum expressed his appreciation for the arrival of guests who had been willing to visit the Islamic Psychology faculty in Aceh. One UMA student, Elvi said their arrival was related to cross-cultural courses. Their presence in Aceh to exchange experiences and information, including cultural matters.

"This visit was carried out within the framework of the Field Triep of cross-cultural psychology courses, this is the second visit before in the city of Padang now the goal is to Aceh," Elvi said.

